

Esther Wegener

January 11, 1944 - June 8, 2019

Esther Wegener was born on January 11th, 1944 in Yugoslavia to her parents Rusa (Rose) and Branko (Brian) Bobnar and also had one younger brother, John. After meeting and marrying her first husband, Nick Dordevic in early 1960's and living in Germany, Esther would move to the United States in the 1960's and settle in California. Esther would have 2 sons, David and Adrian, by her first husband Nick Dordevic. Following their divorce, Esther would meet and marry Werner Wegener in 1975. After many years living in the San Francisco bay area and adopting two girls, Rebecca and Beth, the Wegener's would spend several years in Texas. In 1993 Werner and Esther moved to Hot Springs, Arkansas to officially retire. After many years of multiple health issues and multiple hospitalizations, Esther would pass away peacefully on June 8th. Esther is survived by her spouse Werner, her oldest son, David Dordevic and his wife Kay along with their two adult daughters Ashley and Lauren; her youngest son Adrian and his wife Shantal along with their adult children Morgan and Justin, along with their other grandchildren Emily and her brother Travis, her adoptive daughters Rebecca and Beth along with their families, her nephew Oliver and Brian Bobnar along with their families. Esther was much loved by her church community, the Hot Springs Seventh-day Adventist church and by other friends. Memorial services will be held at the Hot Springs Seventh-day Adventist church 401 Weston Road on July 13th at 4pm.
