

Evelyn Marie Hogue

July 15, 1924 - April 2, 2016

Evelyn Marie Hogue, 91, of Hot Springs passed away on Saturday, April 2, 2016. She was born in Daisy, Arkansas on July 15, 1924 to the late Alice and John R. Bradford.

She was a graduate of Hot Springs High School and attended Ouachita Baptist College in Arkadelphia. She was a past long-time member of the Hot Springs Century Club and a retired co-owner of a local dry cleaning and laundry company in Hot Springs.

Survivors include: two grandchildren, Janet (Neil) Ruhmor of Owensboro, Kentucky; Rick Hogue of Hot Springs; two great-grandchildren, Allison and Adam; and one sister Cynthia Keheley.

She was predeceased by her parents; husband, Vernon; son, Paul James Hogue; two sisters, Frances Annette Head and Ruby Deyon; and two brothers, Cecil Ray and Odis C. Bradford.

A private graveside service will be held.

Tribute Wall

NA

“ Once when she had surgery, years ago..i went to stay with her during the day for a couple of weeks..She was the sweetest woman, a LADY, who like her lotion after bath and her tea "crisp" which could only be obtained by getting water downtown from fountain and Unchained Melody because he was her and Vernon's song...nadra allen

nadra allen - April 06, 2016 at 09:16 AM