ME

“ My Deepest Sympathies to the Ruiz Family, plus the Steed and family members of Evelyn's. Evelyn was the wife of my Father, Frank R. Ruiz. Whom she cared for as he reached his elder years.

She learned to care for my Father and for that I am Grateful. My Dad and Evelyn believed in their Faiths and could discuss with respect for one another and their beliefs.

Even though it is not Evelyn's religion, I will say a Rosary for Evelyn and she will know it comes from the heart.

Bless you, Evelyn for caring for my Father. I know you are at peace.

“ The Ruiz Family has lost an amazing woman but heaven just gained an angel. Our Ma-Maw was a kind, generous, loving and giving lady. She never complained about anything & if she was upset, you wouldn't know it because she always wore a smile.

Ma-Maw was filled with joy, she was devoted to her Church, to God, to her family. On behalf of the Ruiz Family we certainly will miss our Ma-Maw but we take great comfort in knowing she is in heaven with Pa-Paw now.

“ The Ruiz Family will certainly miss our Ma-Maw. Always a smile, a laugh, lots of hugs to all of us grandkids & great grandkids, and most importantly how Ma-Maw gave everything she had and never asked for anything in return.

She was a sweet and genuine person. Our family takes great comfort in knowing she is in heaven with Pa-Paw.

“ Evelyn, I loved you from day one. I can't be sad about your passing, I can only be jealous, you're with, Jesus. Tell Harold hello for me. I am glad you're no longer in pain and get to see your love ones. My life has been blessed by knowing you.
