

Gerald Ingraham

April 2, 2010

Gerald H. Ingraham, 92, of Hot Springs died on Friday, April 2, 2010 at his residence.

He was born on December 3, 1917 in Chanute, Kansas to the late Irving and Nell Nixon Ingraham. He entered the Army in 1940 and was a Captain with the First Armored Division, 6th Infantry, serving in Ireland, England, Africa and Italy and received the Bronze Star. He graduated from Kansas State University majoring in Milling Chemistry. He was employed with Pillsbury where he worked for 26 years retiring as the Director of Research International Division. He was of the Methodist faith.

He was predeceased by his wife, Marie Ingraham.

Survivors include his daughter, Judi Krein of Walla Walla, WA, one son and daughter-in-law, Greg and Diana Ingraham of Minneapolis, MN, three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

He felt lucky to have a special friend in Willie J. Montgomery of Bismarck, AR.

Special thanks to Dr. Robert T. Muldoon of the Genesis Cancer Center for his care and honesty.

A family memorial service will be held at a later time.

Arrangements are with Hot Springs Funeral Home.
