“ I grew up with Aunt Tiny (Jewel) and Uncle Glenn. As a very young girl, I went with Tiny to see him one time before they were married. Tiny was my mom's sister and an important part of my life. I remember when she and Glenn adopted Dawn and I remember when Glenda came into the family. Rest in peace, Glenn. I hope that you and Tiny had a great heavenly reunion.

“ We're saddened by the loss of our dear neighbor Glenn. It was a comfort to us to have neighbors such as Glenn and his wife Jewel and will really miss them. We know that the bird houses that he created with his woodworking skills were a blessing to both the birds and the community. ~~~ Buddy & Carolyn Partain
