

Gus John Small

November 10, 1934 - June 12, 2021

Gus John Small from Hot Springs Arkansas passed away June 12, 2021

Gus was a prominent business consultant in Houston, Texas before retiring to Hot Springs.

Gus Jr. was born on November 10, 1934 to Gus Pangarakis and his wife Betty Irene Richardson.

86 years later Gus has a legacy of a great family.

He is survived by his children, Cheryl Neiswender of Louisiana, Deborah Baker of Texas, Jason Hannath of Michigan and Christopher Small of Arkansas; one brother, Lynn Taylor; two sisters, Christine Pangarakis and Mildred Anne Pangarakis (who preceded Gus in death); grandchildren, Landon Whitt of Oklahoma, Sarah Neiswender of Georgia, Matthew Neiswender of Texas, Andrew Bishop of Oklahoma, Victoria Hannath of California, Nathan Baker of Texas, Erika Hannath of Equador, Andrew Powers of Michigan, Isaac Baker of Texas, Alyssa Powers of Michigan and Matthew Powers of Michigan; great grandchildren, Parker Larese of Georgia, Elikai Whitt of Oklahoma, Kallie Neiswender of Texas, Kassidy Neiswender of Texas, Eliora Whitt of Oklahoma and Mackenzie Neiswender of Texas.

Gus's wishes were to be donated to the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences.