“ Harvey was my daddy, and I was his princess. Even though we missed a lot of years together, I was always a daddy’s girl in my heart and prayed for the day I could have him with me. A few years ago we were able to reconnect and the addiction no longer had a hold of him and he was able to come visit and I took a road trip out to see him. It was on that trip I met the woman who had helped him turn his life around and gave me back my daddy. I will forever be grateful to Sherrilynn for standing by him and loving him in the last several years of his life. Always and forever in my heart, Love you Daddy, ❤️ Princess.
