

Hayden (Bud) Barron

March 15, 1990 - February 20, 2016

Hayden (Bud) Barron entered this world on March 15, 1990. Headstrong and determined, he entered this world and matured into a handsome and compassionate young man. He lived his life out loud, intense, strong-willed, funny, and loving. Hayden was devoted to his family. He poured his life into his relationships and left a lasting impression on each person he met. Anyone that had the good fortune to call him friend knew that he was loyal to a fault. He was a relentlessly hard worker and a gifted cosmetologist, employed at a number of retail locations and hair salons throughout Hot Springs.

He was promoted to heaven on February 20, 2016. He left behind a lifetime of memories and a legacy of love with his mom Ann, his sister Kendall (Zac), Uncle Charlie (Kim), Uncle Carl, Grandma Loy, niece and nephew Elizabeth and Jake, and countless friends. Welcoming him home was Jordan, Nathan, Nana, Mimi, and Grandpa.

A memorial service will be held to remember his love and celebrate his life on Tuesday, February 23, 2016 at two o'clock at First Lutheran Church, Hot Springs. Brother Jason Clenney will be officiating.

Memorials may be made to the While We're Waiting faith-based bereavement ministry via the website www.whilewerewaiting.org.

“ Haydo, Retty, Daniel Beaty, and Bud,
My dearest sweetest friend. I do not even know where to begin on which memory is my favorite- but I think it's the one where we went with momma Ann to the funeral home. You pushed me in the parking lot and then pushed me down about 20 steps completely against my will. Then into the side of the dumpster because you were "blind" and couldn't see where you we're pushing-pfft lol I still forgave you once the feeling returned back I'm my knees! Lol You were the greatest friend to me- I'm so,so,so lucky to call you my friend. I remember everything from hang with momsy at work every day, to riding fourwheelers and dirt bikes- with Tyler and Trevor. Making family meals with you and spending Christmas together with both of our families. Oh Kendall's and the story of the quarter- how she got her nickname from us" ole quarters" I love you Kendall's If your reading this. Ill never forget the gift you gave me from build a bear workshop- it was our first Christmas was there and momsy, Kendall's, and Jordan were all packed in the car- you were all so excited for me to open it- I had never heard build a bear workshop until that day- it was the most beautiful rabbit with slippers, bows, and the cutest outfit. I had never felt so loved by any other than my own family. Your family took me in as there own and vice versa. You are loved by so many and gone too soon. I'm praying for your family, and all friends for guidance and faith-I miss you and love you beyond what words can describe, you as well momma Ann and Quarters!

“ My first time meeting Hayden left a lasting impression. We knew exactly the same people. Including his mom. He and I were talking at the job. And he kept talking about his life and family. All sounding familiar. I questioned him about his mom. It was like magic! Ann, you have been dear to me and my family for quite a few years now. We were both excited to know that we had something in common and soon became friends. My prayers and love are with you all.

“ I taught Bud in the 5th and 6th grades. I also took some of his senior pictures. One of the funniest things I remember was some of the kids in his high school Spanish class putting a film together at my house. They used my shed as the inn and my dog for a sheep in the Nativity story they filmed. So funny! I love you, Kendall, my ball player and Ann, you are in my prayers. Mary Penny
