“ Sherry, Gary and Paul my heart goes out to you. Hazel was an extraordinary person. Full of love for everyone. I cherished the moments we had at Tommy’s restaurant eating your Dad’s pancakes. I remember the time Hazel got out of a speeding ticket with me, Sherry and Gary in the car. Your Mom’s driver’s license still said she was single and the cop felt sorry for her and just gave her a warning. I now live down the street from where Tommy’s restaurant was located. I Think of her when I Pass by.
RIP Hazel fly high with the Angels.
