

Helen Elizabeth Selig

February 18, 2022

I want to be thoroughly used up when I die, for the harder I work the more I live. I rejoice in life for its own sake. Life is no “brief candle” for me. It is a sort of splendid torch which I have got hold of for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.

— George Bernard Shaw

Helen Elizabeth Selig, former Mayor of Hot Springs and beloved matriarch, died Friday, February 18th after a long and valiant battle with Alzheimer’s. She was 84.

Born Helen Boyd in Siloam Springs, she was the daughter of Ryland Samuel Boyd and Catherine Elizabeth Bell Boyd and a devoted sister to Catherine Sue Devero.

She and her husband of 64 years, John David Selig, raised their four children across several states and communities - De Queen, Arkansas; Philadelphia, Mississippi; Coos Bay, Oregon; Kent, Washington; and finally Hot Springs, Arkansas. In each town, Helen brought a passion for public service and community engagement, and in Hot Springs, that led to her term as Mayor.

Serving from 1994 to 2000, Helen was proud to show off her adopted hometown and spearhead economic and civic development. During her tenure, the Hot Springs Civic and Convention Center was constructed, and through her passionate lobbying the Arkansas School for Mathematics, Sciences, and the Arts opened.

Helen was a commercial realtor and founder, with her son Scott, of the longtime Selig Commercial Real Estate in Hot Springs. She was a founding member of the Arkansas Women's Leadership Forum and the Women's Foundation of Arkansas and the first female Chair of the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce. Helen also served on the boards of the Oaklawn Foundation, her local NAACP, the Hot Springs Music Festival, and the national St John's Mercy Health System in Springfield, Missouri, among others.

Helen will be most dearly remembered by her family. Known to her 11 grandchildren and 4 great granddaughters as "Nana", Helen led her tribe on adventures from the Uffizi in Florence, Italy to Iguazu Falls in Argentina to Gulpha Gorge in Hot Springs. She was a matriarch with high standards and even greater love, and she instilled in each the importance of leading a contributory life and of doing so together, as a family.

She was preceded in death by her father, mother, and sister, and her torch will burn on through her children: Dr. Sarah Selig Carrier (Mark) of Johnson City, Tennessee; John Mark Selig (Jeannie Fetting) of Benton; Scott Selig (Kris) of Durham, North Carolina; and Michael Selig of Big Sur, California; along with her grandchildren: First Sergeant Allister Hawkins, Dr. Evan Allie, Kevin Selig, Lacy Selig, Anna Murphy, Sam Selig, Clifford Hawkins, SarahBelle Selig, Jack Selig, Mary Catherine Selig, and Vyla J'Neva Selig, and her great grandchildren: Elliott, Rose Elizabeth, Theodora Joyce, and Helen Ann, and of course, her devoted husband, John David Selig.

Helen, Mom, Nana - You are our sunshine.

Memorial Mass will be held at St. Mary of the Springs Catholic Church in Hot Springs, Arkansas on Thursday, February 24th, at 11:00 am followed by a reception. All are welcomed to attend.

The family asked that all in attendance wear a face covering.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to The Caring Place.

Although it was my honor to provide staff support for Helen during her mayoral years, she was also my friend. She had a way of immediately turning her focus away from herself and on you. She was an empath who felt the pain of others and would reach out with a kind word. Years ago when my mother passed, she quietly presented me with a gift to remember my mother by, saying, "We each have just one mother, and they are precious to us."

At the end of today's reception, a Selig family member suggested that we take one of the wildflower arrangements home, as they had plenty of extra ones. I turned to my husband and said, "Who can we cheer up today with these flowers?" He immediately thought of an elderly friend who is at home recovering from a fall. She is delighted with the flowers. I share this with Helen's family so you can know that even after her passing, Helen was blessing someone else.

I also remember years ago when Helen was honored with a community roast. Many people had such high regard for her that they put together quite a presentation. I remember I laughed until I cried. It was such good fun. Somewhere, I have an old videotape copy of it.

Helen, your enthusiasm about life, love of family and devotion to this city are qualities I will always remember about you. Thank you for leading those countless Saturday morning hikes with women friends, facilitating memories I truly treasure. Thank you for your generosity, encouragement, compassion, business sense, vision, determination and grit. You always focused your bright light onto the needs of others, rather than yourself. Husband, family, friends, community... your heart was big enough for all. May your loved ones rejoice in your enduring legacy. 💙

“ *Mr. Selig and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I was always welcomed by your family and enjoyed babysitting your "children". It just so happens today I am making Mrs. Selig's famous Chicken Spaghetti recipe that she gave to our mother.
Prayers for comfort and peace.*

“ *“Mrs. Selig” helped me grow up in DeQueen, Arkansas. She created a welcoming home and family. I still have a construction paper map she helped me create to memorialize a Trip the Tom Coulter family took in the 60’s. Very special lady.
Prayers of comfort to the family. Beth Ann Coulter Weast.*

“ Sarah, Danielle gave me the news that your mother passed away. I never got a chance to meet Mrs. Selig, but Danielle always spoke very highly of "Nana and Pappa," as she very affectionally called them. She said your parents were very kind to her.

My deepest condolences to you, your father, Allister and the entire family.

“ From the perspective of friends of Scott and Kris, we know the power of love was ever present toward Helen and surrounded the entire Selig clan. Our most vivid memory of Helen was watching her entrance and subsequently walking down the aisle during granddaughter Anna’s wedding. The visual descriptive and applicable words are: Regal. And proud, And loving. And beautiful in every sense. We hurt for our dear and close friends, but know comfort is fueled by love and in this case, love is abundantly present. What a lady, what an incredible family. Love to all.

“ John and family, Helen was an inspiration to us personally and to our entire Harvard AMP class as she shared living life to the fullest. Words cannot express the impact she brought to so many reunions when she shared her love of life. You are in our prayers as we remember the precious times we were able to spend in her company. What a great life she lived! Love you. Emmy and Mike

“ John was my manager for many years. I always said he was like working for a tornado. But Helen could run circles around him, like a never ending Energizer Bunny. But what great things they have both done for our community. She was a get things done person and has left quite a legacy. Regina Aitken, Hot Springs

“ John Mark Selig: I was so sorry to learn of your mother's passing; I have such fond memories of the one visit I had with her...I had been determined to meet her given all you had shared with me and the many wonderful things I learned about her from Hot Springs friends. It is so hard to lose a mother but I quickly learned 15 years ago it is also a matter I find every day things I would never have known except through my wonderful mother and that gives me great satisfaction and peace. May it be so for you and all your family.

“ What a life! Such meaningful contributions to the world around her even while building a family of wonderful character, togetherness and just plain joy, at least as seen through the eyes of a good friend of Scott, Kris and their lovely family. I only met Helen once, when Scott and Kris had a large family gathering, invited me and she was there. I will never forget the kindness all showed to her, despite her illness, the love she continued to show for them and her singing Christmas carols at the piano - at Thanksgiving - and the happiness and willingness of all to join in. May she rest In peace, leaving a legacy of such joy. Peter Lange, friend, with Clare, of the Durham Seligs.
