“ Hello Thelma, I just wanted to tell you I was sorry to hear of Herbert's death. I remember in my young days when I lived in Hot Springs and went to First Church of the Nazarene and there were "Herbert sightings" of him in church. You were always a devoted Christian and wife to him and I will always admire and remember you for that. I know you find comfort in God's promises. Molly McGowan Fougrousse

“ Dear Thelma and Family, As a family, please accept our sincere condolences. Mr. Shortreed was a great friend of our late mother and stepdad, Ruth and Jack Scroggin. You may remember them from the Nazarene Church. Mother thought he could fix just about anything ,especially the well pump. He was just a great guy to have known, a fine man.
