

Imogene Smith

July 24, 2011

Imogene “Jean” Smith was born March 31, 1933 to JJ and Georgia Faught, of Hot Springs, Arkansas. Jean slipped gently into the arms of her Savior on Sunday afternoon, July 24, 2011. She was greatly loved by her children, grand children, step children, nieces and nephews. Jean was a Baptist and resident of Garland County. The youngest of eight children, Jean left Hot Springs as a bride and lived in California, Oregon and Washington State before returning to Arkansas to retire. “Nana” as she was known by her grandchildren left a legacy of love for family, love for the Lord and growing beautiful flower gardens.

She is survived by sons Gary Orrell & wife Laura of Dutch John, Utah; Stephen Orrell & wife Sandy of Hot Springs, Arkansas; and James Rutherford. Daughters Terry Shuffield & husband Ron of Abilene, Texas; Nancy Robinson-Goshorn & husband Ed of Shingletown, California; stepsons Joe & wife Peggy Smith, Mike & wife Betty Smith and Steve Smith all of Hot Springs. Jean is survived by fifteen grand children and sixteen great-grand children.

Jean was preceded in death by her husband Clifton Smith as well as her brothers; Gail Faught, Carl Faught, JC Faught, Charlie Faught, Floyd Faught, sisters Girlie Johnson, Lois Covey and by great-granddaughter Madison Rose Balliette.

Her life and memory will be honored on Tuesday August 9th at 10:00AM at Hot Spring Funeral Home. Service will be officiated by Ron Shuffield. Jean’s pallbearers will be her son, grandsons and stepsons.

Burial will be in Bain Cemetery.
