“ Grandpa Jack.... always a ladies man. I remember his garden and it's why I garden. I remember our Thanksgivings.... his flowers and fruit trees. He always smelled good and wore western wear and looked like a native elder. He had a house in Rover, AR that will always be one of my favorite places. He and my grandma slept in separate rooms. They had a wood cook stove... it was awesome. We always played checkers or tick tac toe or hangman. He's one of the reasons I am so close to my roots. I went an saw his old house this last weekend and it's as beautiful as ever. I have added a photo of it now. I plan to add more later.
