

Jack R Williams

October 20, 1930 - July 29, 2015

Jack R. Williams passed from this earthly life July 29, 2015 to meet with his angelic daughter, Donna Lynn, and wife Charlotte Ann Denton Williams, and second wife Jeanne Wardrup Williams (Fort Smith AR) whom all preceded him in death. Jack leaves two sons, Jack L. Williams, Hot Springs, AR, and James Williams (Barbara) of Panama City Beach, FL., and his beloved companion dog, Buddy.

Jack started working for his father at a young age, in Rogers AR., driving produce trucks and chickens as a teen, prior to joining the U.S. Air Force. After his service in the Phillipian Islands, he returned to Rogers and married Charlotte Ann Denton. They were blessed to have daughter Donna Lynn born and enjoyed her for less than two short years, before her death. Jack's job with Shoppers Garage took the young couple to North Carolina, where Jackie was born. Desiring to be closer to family, they moved to Memphis, and Jack was employed by the Memphis Park Commission, starting as a groundskeeper, then Foreman for the ball fields, and later moving up to Mud Island. One of the family's greatest memories was living at "The Litherman House" during Jack's tenure with Memphis Park Commission. It was a sad day for this family when this home burned. Jack also worked at the Frayser Drive-In, as well as a commercial bus driver for Greyhound, and private tours for several years.

After living with James & Barbara in Hot Springs, Jack invested in rental property in Fort Smith, where he met and married Norma Jean Wardrup, and they continued in Real Estate Investing.

After the passing of both wives from cancer, Jack moved to Florida to enjoy a retired life, and missing his Arkansas roots, traveled back frequently, visit family and friends.

No services are scheduled at this time, and graveside memorial services will be at Rogers Cemetery, Rogers AR, in the fall, so family can enjoy the changing leaves and scenery as this was Jack's favorite time of year.

“ Jackie and Jamie , I am sending you two boys my love and sympathy for the loss of your dad. He was a good man and will be missed by us all.May God rest his soul in Heaven.
Last year , I got a lovely surprise visit from him and Barbara and am so thankful that i got to see and talk with him once again. Your family was certainly an important part of my life, Charlotte was same as my sister.I loved them dearly. I am always here for you boys if you ever need me .
Love and many hugs to all of you.

With a sad and heavy heart, thank you for reaching out. Still stubborn after all these years, and wanting to sleep on your church pew in the living room, Daddy so enjoyed the visit last year. Would love to see all of you, Aunt Jeanne, Charles, Mark, Suzie and Timmy. Call me, 850-588-8631 James & Barbara

“ Heartfelt condolences to all during this time of grief. May the many memories you shared with your dear loved one and the passing of time help you to endure. Almighty God will soon wipe away the tears of sadness, replacing tears of joy in a Paradise earth. Think when those asleep in the memorial tombs will be awoken to life back on a peaceful earth. Yes, this is a reality that will soon be experience, because Titus 1:2 says; "God cannot lie."
