

Jackie Caldwell

June 10, 2010

Jacqueline Caldwell, 77, of Hot Springs passed away Thursday, June 10, 2010 at home. She was born August 18, 1932 in Hot Springs to the late Clare and Edith Stitt Clark. She was predeceased by her husband of 56 years Renaford Stearns Caldwell and a son David Eric Caldwell. She was a an original board member of Quapaw House, one of the founders of the AIDS Resource Center, a volunteer for the Contact crisis line for 20 years, a DBS Alumni, one of the founders of the Telephone Pioneers of America in the Hot Springs area, co-owner of the Today Magazine in Hot Springs, former owner of the Arrangement Flower Shop and former president of the Floral Association of Hot Springs. She was a current member of Criterian Club and Stephens Ministry at First United Methodist Church where she was an active member.

Jackie will be greatly missed by her son, John, his wife Robyn and her grandchildren, Chris and Rachel, her many cousins and friends also mourn her. Jackie never met a stranger and would even spend hours on the phone with a wrong number. If anyone was down and out, they knew Jackie would help however she could, encouraging any and all who came her way.

Memorial Services will be held 1:00 PM Monday, June 14, 2010 at First United Methodist Church with Reverend William O. "Bud" Reeves officiating.

Memorials may be made to First United Methodist Church