“ There are times in our lives where we have a knowing that God was in it. That was so evident when it came to Jackie and I. From the moment we met there was an immediate connection. It was an absolute honor for God to have chosen me to care for him in the last chapter of his story. I always looked forward to my time with him. The tears we shared, the wise counsel, the smiles and laughter, our mutual love for our doggie babies(I'm thinking of you today too, oopsie🐶) and so much more. He had such a sweet spirit and gentle soul. He loved his family fiercely! Each of you are in my prayers. My heart breaks for your loss because a great loss it is. Thank you with all of my heart for allowing me to be a small part of his journey. I am eternally grateful! May God comfort you in a way that only he can. In the days to come when your heart misses him most, may you find great comfort in knowing that there is a part of him with each of you! God bless you all!
