“ I haven't been around for as long as my husband has, but because of him I gained not just friends but people I consider family. I met Jacob when he was around 10 years old. He loved to play football with the guys. I wasn't close with Jacob but he was always kind and courteous at family gatherings. He will be dearly missed. REST IN LOVE

“ I still remember the very first day that you came here and moved in the old house on top of the hill with Aunt Sue and Uncle Reggie. Yall moved from South Carolina and you were just a little thing and then in a few short years you turned out to be pretty good guy. So hard to believe that even though we were young together that we don't get to grow old together. R.I.P. Cuz.
