

James Dean Elder

May 28, 1964 - July 24, 2017

James Dean Elder of Hot Springs left this earthly world July 24, 2017 after fighting type one diabetes for a long time.

James left behind his loving wife Michelle Elder, and daughter Keirra Dison, son-in-law Nick Dison, Granddaughters Jaime Finley, Kaylee Dison, Zoey Dison, stepdaughter Kary Jankovsky, step grandkids Brenden, Nevaeh, Risa, and Jr., his brother Easton Elder Jr. and several nieces and nephews.

He was pre-deceased by his mother Lura Hopper, Father Easton Elder Sr., Sister Judy Black, and Brother Lynn Elder.

Honorary pallbearers are Terry Don, Vince Harris, Guy Mcdill, Rick Bostow, Easton Floyd Black, and Klovis Tucker.

Instead of flower donations may be made at the Bank of the Ozarks in the friends of James Elder account.

A celebration of life will be on August 19th at 1:00 PM at Mountain Valley Baptist Church.

We love you sunshine, we will see you soon, remember we are “working them angels”.

Tribute Wall

SJ

“ Jim was a great guy. Always greeted you with a smile and a hug. He was a good friend to me and my daughter Michelle Jeffries Cox, that went to HSCC at the same time. He will be missed, never enough Jim's with that personality to go around.

Sheila Jeffries

Sheila Jeffries - August 05, 2017 at 01:50 AM

TR

“ I used to work with James. He is a good man who loves his kids and family. We used to talk football all the time back then.

Tony Robbins - July 29, 2017 at 07:31 PM

