“ Praying for peace, love, strength and understanding. James Brown has been family to myself and my family since the day I met him! If there's one person that I knew was proud of me, it was definitely him! He always had a pleasant smile and a bit of game for me. We both always came to the conclusion that everybody else was "popping game" and we weren't! I'll miss running into you and seeing that courageous smile. Rest easy James Brown! Moe, we're here if you need anything!
