“ *I haven't seen my cousins in 5-6 years. But, I have childhood memories for sure. One that will I will always remember is we were visiting Aunt Jeanie and Uncle James. We went to town to see the movie Grease. By the time it got to me to purchase my ticket, the movie was sold out. Sweet Jake gave me his ticket and said you go in and watch it. I will stay out here and wait on all of you. Such a loving and precious person!
Lifting my other family up in prayer. Love to all.

“ I met Jake for the first time when I was around 4 years old. I didn't know that I had family in Arkansas... at that time I didn't even know what Arkansas was... but Jake was cool... he was quiet. I saw one of my first snowfalls there at his family home, I knew what it was like to play in the creek with my cousins ... Angie, Jackie, and of course Jake. That's when I discovered tadpoles...

We came back every few years, driving from South Carolina (that was a long drive riding in the back of a station wagon) ... but we were always welcome and had the best time...

I last saw Jake a few years ago, five or six years... hard to keep track when life starts passing faster... we all got together in Mississippi... frankly was a big reunion of folks I hadn't seen in years... a time to catch up on the new kids and happenings in each other's lives.

I wish things were different, but we have to have faith in God's plan. My prayers are with you and the family.
