“ James and I met years ago and realized that we had alot more in common that either of us thought. I still remember the 1st time we officially hung out at a Pool hall in Arkadelphia playing 9 ball and well pushing eachothers buttons too. That evening after a few hours in, I realized that he'd become a good close friend of mine!! From that point on into the next 7 years. Yes we had ups and downs. But we always worked everything out! He was one of the very , very few I let in 100% and could trust with anything also. He was a blessing to have as such a close friend! James can't ever be replaced with another. He was one of a kind. I Love and miss you JQ so very much Daily. The most important male's I have had/ have in my life have James in their name one way or another. This is my way of honoring James and the other family!

“ I was blessed to be his English teacher in high school . James had such an amazing insight. Later, we reconnected through pool, books and a beer. As an adult , he would never call me Chris -always called me Ms Groves. We had a deep mutual respect for each other. I will miss him incredibly
My condolences to the family and to the rest of the people who knew and loved James like I did.
