“ To the family of one of my best friend from my childhood days and it will never end. God knows when all of our days on this side life will end. even though we might not be ready; God is still in control. My prayers go out to the family of J.S. James Scroggins (sutton).

“ My prayers are with you at this time. James had a quirky sense of humor and a larger than life personality and smile to match. He will be missed by all who knew him.
