I miss and love you more than anyone can comprehend. You will always be my sunshine streaming down from heaven. As the sun comes up it will be good morning, and as the sun goes down it will be good night. I know you are are strolling heaven and taking in the awe that your eyes behold. “ I love you Jason. We were so close as kids and as we grew, we grew apart, but you have always and will always be my little cousin that was constantly getting into mischief. From taking apart aunt Judy's wheel chair to running down the stree butt naked after Miranda's school bus, you knew how to keep your mom and the rest of us on our toes. I will never forget the fun we had at grandma Estelle's house and at Mimi's house.

Fly high little cousin. <3
