“ It's hard to lose a classmate that should have had a lot of years left. When I heard the news about Jeremy Simpson it's have me heartbroken that we are going through this again with another classmate. It is always hard to say good-bye to a friend at any time. My thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends of Jeremy!!! May God Bless Jeremy Simpson and his family.

“ My last memory that we made together was a couple of years ago. I invited Jeremy to Biscoe to our duck camp along with my Brother Jeff Simpson and my Dad Jerry Simpson. We had a great time just sitting around the fire and having refreshments. We talked about old times and how everybody in the family was doing. I remember when he was packing up to leave and gave everybody a big hug with goodbyes. I'm gonna miss him!
