

Jimmie Bowers

May 9, 2011

Jimmie C. Bowers, 81, of Hot Springs died Monday, May 9, 2011. He was born in Dewitt, Arkansas July 30, 1929. Preceded in death by his parents, Clayton and Faye Bowers; two brothers, Joe and Clayton Jr.

Survived by his wife of 56 years, Norma Lee Bowers; two daughters, Melanie Bowers, Terri Morphew & husband, Budd; one granddaughter, Paige Morphew; sister, Corita LaCotts; one brother, Sam Bowers; niece, Glenda Shoptaw; nephews, Ray Trantham & Mark Trantham; other nieces and nephews.

Jimmie was a Deacon of Central Baptist Church and was active with the youth group for many years. He was a car salesman for 36 years and a former member of the Jaycees. Jimmie enjoyed hunting, fishing and cooking almost as much as he loved telling a good joke or story. He was loved by all who knew him.

Memorial services will be 1:00 PM Thursday at Central Baptist Church with Dr. Bill Harris & Brother Coy Sample officiating.

Honorary pallbearers are Russell Miller, Coy Sample, Jim Geurin, Tom Daniel, Bradley Johnson, David Verble, Gene Beckwith, Melvin Johnson, Bill Peters, Dr. Martin Koehn, Dr. Greg St. John, St. Joseph's Hospital, Heritage Rehab and Arkansas Hospice. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Central Baptist Church.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Uncle Jimmy. I will always remember his love for Mexican food. Guess it runs in the family as I also could eat it daily! I remember all the time growing up when you all came to Little Rock just to eat at El Patio, Browings or the other one just as you get to LR. Uncle Jimmy was always my favorite uncle and he was always a barrel of fun and jokes. He will be missed by many.
