

Jimmie "Jim" Mahan

February 15, 2010

Jimmie Joe "Jim" Mahan, 78, of Hot Springs, died Monday, Feb. 15, 2010. He was born June 21, 1931, in Bee Branch, to John D. and Maudie Mahan. He was a veteran of the United States Air Force and auctioneer.

Survivors include his wife, Letha Mahan, of Hot Springs; one daughter, Kimberly Ezell, of Hot Springs; sons and daughters-in-law, Rodney and Dana Baker, of Atkins, AR, and John and Danielle Mahan, of Phoenix, AZ; grandsons, Eric Ezell, Blake Ezell, Kaden Baker, Kamran Baker, John Mahan Jr., and Conner Mahan; granddaughters, Kathleen Baker, Kimmie Baker, Kortlind Baker, Stephanie Ingram, and Kassy Baker; 5 great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Jim graduated high school in Formosa, AR, joined the Air Force, and then attended University of Central Arkansas. He later attended Western College of Auctioneers in Billings, Montana, and then started the first wholesale dealers' auction in Texas.

Our special thanks to the VA Hospital and his physicians, Heritage Nursing Home, Dierksen Hospice, and Steve Crossno, his dear friend.

Memorial service will be at 1:00 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 20, 2010, at Antioch Baptist Church in Royal.