“ I love you uncle bill. We had a lot of good times together. You thought me a lot of stuff. I'm not perfect but I'm definitely a better and smarter man because of everything you thought me. Wish I would of had you teach me how to make a tater gun. I will learn how and blow some stuff up for you! I miss you. I will talk to you soon since your right up the hill from me now. Sorry for breaking your light fixture cover when I was about 13. I was scared that you was mad at me but I was wrong. We just went and bought another one. Thanks for helping me out many many times in my life.
