“ John was a great guy to know. I considered him a friend. Spent a lot of time sitting on his porch on Park Ave. trading lies. John was a good friend who would help anyone in need. I will miss my times with a good friend. Lindrel Hogaboom

“ My Dad was quite a character. He had the best sense of humor, always with a joke. He was a hard worker. He instilled in his children a good work ethic and to always do our best. We worked hard, we played hard. My father would have risked life and limb for his children. In short, I'm grateful he was MY Dad and I'm going to miss him terribly.
