

John Phillip Quaglino

January 19, 1936 - June 7, 2024

John Phillip Quaglino, 88, passed away peacefully on June 7, 2024, at home with his wife Jeri and granddaughter Laikyn by his side. Jack was born in Los Angeles, CA. to Philip John Quaglino and Eunice Blackman Quaglino.

Survivors include his wife of 31 years, Geraldine Quaglino, two sons, Bretton and Geoffrey Quaglino, both of Santa Barbara, CA, three stepchildren, Denise Pickett, Donnie Deitz, and David Deitz, seven grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

Jack moved to Hot Springs, AR. in December 1989 where he started a business called Accents in Art in the Hot Springs mall. Later on he moved his business to Central Avenue across from bathhouse row and changed the name to Candlelight Galleria. For several years Jack served the residents of Hot Springs and surrounding areas with his wonderful candles and unique gifts. After closing his business downtown, he took up the hobby of hand carving wooden sticks.

Jack's wit and kind ways will be missed by many especially his family and friends.
