“ Dear sweet Ann, I heard the news late yesterday & was so upset I just cried out to God~ I prayed for comfort for you & all of the family especially your grandbabies..... Then, I thanked Him for bringing Jordan into your lives for these past 26 years and how her smile & spirit will live on through Elizabeth & Jake ~ He needed her back in His presence for some reason, maybe for your Momma to hold for awhile? :) Look what gifts He's left with you~ in Jordan's memory ~ her beautiful babies who mirror her spirit every day! I will continue to pray for you & hope you know that I, as many others, love you much....

“ Jordan was my neighbor for a bit. She embraced my life with smiles and hugs. She went from neighbor to friend very quickly. We would sit outside together and discuss life and children....and laugh! She was beautiful. Jordan....thanks for touching my life..... I'll miss you.

“ Sweet Jordan: Always the way I thought of this beautiful young lady. She showed me friendship when I had nobody to call "friend". We laughed together, brought babies into the world at the same time, cried together.. I will be praying for Elizabeth, Jake, Mrs. Ann and the rest of the family for many months to come. Love you all dearly -

“ We cant even find the words to express our sadness for you and your sweet family. Jerry and I can recall such wonderful memories when your babies were growing up. I recall us talking about what you were going to name Jordan when you found out you were expecting and her spending the night with Jerry and I and sleeping in the middle of us, when she was just a toddler. Jerry remembers driving beautiful Jordan in the Acme Brick pageant like it was yesterday. Those are the memories of her we will cherish forever. You are and always will be the most incredible mother and friend anyone could ask for. Jerry and I love your family so much!
