“ I knew Joe when I was a very young pup. I liked to draw a lot and he mentored me to some extent. Our family camped a lot together and he drew this large picture of a campsite. Half a picture really. He drew half of a campfire, half of a tent, etc. He wanted me to complete the picture. He was a FANTASTIC painter and a true Artist.

I'm sorry that I lost track of you Joe.

“ Growing up with the Gatti family as a first cousin.....I could tell some stories. My fondest memories are visiting in the two story house/store/diner, playing bocci, and the welcoming warmth and smells in Aunt Aggie's kitchen. This family truly wraps you in their love for your lifetime.

We are so sorry for your loss and ours.

God's blessings of peace, comfort, and especially joy as you share your stories and memories.

Love you all.....Sherrill Carter Smithey ❤️
