“ My Dad loved spending time with Mr. Joe. He even made him a wooden cane that he carved his name into (Gene). It was a great work of art & very beautiful! They spent a lot of time together and enjoyed playing music together...Hoping they found each other in Heaven & had a great reunion!!! Prayers for all of your family as I know he was a treasure to each of you!

Joe did me a walking cane and it's here in my living room. I will never forget the day I met him at the Shack in Jessieville. Violet
