

Joyce Lee Wagner

May 8, 1949 - December 6, 2022

Joyce Lee Wagner passed on December 6, 2022 in the peacefulness of her own home. She left behind her daughter, Lisa Garner and her son, Zachery Wagner. Her grandchildren, Kourtney Stallings, Steven Garner and Cavan Murphy as well as her grandson in love, Kyle Moffat. She also leaves behind her “mini-me” great granddaughter, Kylee Moffat. She also leaves behind her sister, Vicki Keenom (and husband Ricki) and her brother Fred Willis (wife Mary Jo) as well as a huge number of nieces, nephews, friends, and relatives. She was predeceased by her parents, Vernie and Paul Willis as well as her brothers Larry Willis, Donald Willis and Randy Willis. She also was predeceased by her loving husband, Roscoe Wagner and spirited daughter, Angela Wagner.

She was born to Paul and Vernie Willis on May 8, 1949, in Benton, AR and the world wasn't the same after that. She spent her days caring for her family or anyone else who needed it. She never missed a single sporting event or any event that needed “Mom's” or “Nana's” attendance to be just right. Outside of caring for her family, she loved hunting with her family at their deer lease or crappie fishing on Lake Ouachita. She was full of wisdom and never failed to let you exactly what you needed to hear. She had a smile that would light up a room and a fire in her spirit that was living proof that dynamite come in small packages.

Due to the threat of Covid, the family will have a private memorial celebration. For information on where to send flowers, words of kindness or condolences, please reach out to Hot Springs Funeral Home.
