

Juanita Black

December 7, 2012

Juanita A. Black, 89, returned home on December 7, 2012. Born in Chicago, Illinois, on January 18, 1923, to Charles and Prudence Reinhold.

Married to her sweetheart, William W. "Bill" Black, on March 31, 1946, in Russellville, Arkansas. Together, they raised two children, William G. "Bill" Black and Julie A. (Black) Rolak, while living in England, Chicago, and Crystal Lake, Illinois. The family relocated to Arkansas in 1977, settling in Hot Springs.

Juanita, a retired bookkeeper, was an active and vital person, and enjoyed participating in varied social and community groups. She had a great love of family, and of God, and was passionate in her study and growth of her spiritual life. Juanita was also passionate about the study of God's place in the herbs and plants which are used for their medicinal qualities.

Juanita is survived by her daughter, Julie (Rick) Rolak, daughter-in-law Connie Black, granddaughters, Katie (Mike) Bell, and Gina (Jason) Cate, great-grandchildren Bryar and Laken Bell, and Jackson, Landry, and Corley Cate. She was preceded in death by her husband and her son.

Memorial Service at 2:00 pm on Saturday, December 15th at Piney Grove United Methodist Church, Rev. Scott Gallimore officiating.

The family requests in lieu of flowers that donations be made to Piney Grove UMC Food Pantry.

Burial at Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ I so enjoyed my visits with Juanita. She was such an interesting, kind, concerned and loving person...and such a faithful servant of our heavenly Father. She will be missed, but, oh what a triumphant entrance into God's heavenly mansion she will make... An angel here on earth and now in her eternal home ! Thank you for your friendship, compassion and love, Juanita. Sincerely, Marisa Rasnic

Marisa Rasnic - December 12, 2012 at 04:30 PM