

Judith Lynn DeLuca

October 24, 1947 - January 10, 2017

Judith Lynn DeLuca, of Hot Springs, departed to Heaven on January 10th, 2017. She was 69 years old.

Judith was born in Washington, DC, and lived in Hot Springs since 1989. She worked as a psychiatric aide and activity therapist at The Ridges in Athens, OH, and later became an LPN working for Community Counseling Services in Hot Springs. She loved helping her clients and those less fortunate than herself.

She enjoyed artwork, listening and dancing to music, cooking, movies, socializing, and spending time with the people and pets she loved. Much of her time was devoted to being a wonderful and caring mother. Strong, eloquent, graceful and elegant, Judith was a role model for how to live with honesty and integrity. Her empathy and consideration for others endeared and inspired many. May God's love and eternal peace be upon her.

Judith was preceded in death by her parents, William and Lois Jetter, and her beloved dog, Sadie.

She is survived by her brother, Richard Jetter, her sons, Damon Presti DeLuca and Douglas Russell DeLuca, daughter-in-law Rosa Muller-Freeman, granddaughter Delfin Muller, and the father of her sons, Russell DeLuca.

There will be a memorial gathering on the afternoon of Sunday, January 22nd. Please call 804-219-6522 for location and specific time.

Donations may be made to Stop Animal Cruelty in Hot Spring and Garland County (PO Box 1521, Malvern, AR 72104), or the Humane Society (www.humanesociety.org).
