

Karen Latham

October 21, 1950 - May 3, 2021

LATHAM, Karen October 21, 1950 – May 3, 2021 Karen was born in Winnipeg Manitoba and she passed away in her home in Hot Springs Arkansas with her loving husband by her side. Karen is survived by her husband, Lloyd and children, Chris (Renata), Kordina and Brayden (Leanna) and she was a grandmother to Elijah, Theris, Tannoht, Isaac and Seth. Karen lived life passionately, proud of running her business with Lloyd in Hot Springs. She once served as president of the Hot Springs Landlord Association. Her hobbies included composing poetry in calligraphy for her friends and family and word puzzles. Her passions included her dogs and she was devoted to the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) and enjoyed volunteering to drive the veterans to their weekly appointments in Little Rock. Karen leaves behind many friends and family who will all greatly miss her generosity and zest for life.

There will be a service celebrating Karen's life held in her honor on Thursday May 13, 2021 - 11 am at Hot Springs Funeral Home for friends and family. Refreshments served directly after the service next door at the Central Baptist Church meeting hall.

“ A few years ago, I performed at a Halloween show, the venue was popular and packed. I felt like the luckiest person in the world because my Mom was able to catch the show. She stayed until it ended at 2 am. She was my biggest fan, and I'll miss her always.

*Rest in peace
I love you Mom*
