“ The world has lost a very special soul. She imparted through the story of her life a sense of determination, tenacity and caring for life that permeated everything she did. You could see this spark of life in her as she tended the beautiful roses in her garden. You could see it as she served those who visited her. She stood for what she beloved was right regardless of the risk. So glad to have had the pleasure of knowing her.

“ *Ms. Katarina was such a sweet person. She was a client of mine at my old State Farm office. Loved her & the wisdom she possessed! I so enjoyed hearing her stories of her homeland & the "coming to America" one the best! She was very special. The world has lost a great one...Prayers for her family & all who knew & loved her.
