“ I can't get over the fact I just saw you and told you I was proud of you. 24 hours later you were gone faster than the snap of a finger. It was a snap to reality that you can leave in the flash of a moment.
But I have a moment that I want to share and I cherish it. First of all the man hours it took to talk you into putting on makeup. Girl I worked on that for days. You finally let me do it and complained the whole time yet we laughed the whole time because girl you were such a wiggle worm. When I finally finished and trust me the end results were beautiful. I said do you like it and girl you had the audacity to say no. Like excuse me? I took a picture and I've searched high and low and just can't find it but I had proof.
I wanted good things for you. After you lost your hubby you just weren't complete anymore. Maybe now you can be whole again.
You can finally be at peace. No more searching for who you are or where you belong. I love you Katie.
