“ Trenty was a wonderful person. Phyllis and I were great friends when I lived in Hot Springs. I was glad that I had the chance to know Trenty. He used to keep us laughing and on our toes. I remember anytime that there was chicken spahetti cookin at the house he was going to make sure he came and got a plate. He will truly be missed. I am so sorry for this tragic lose. You guys are all in my prayers.

“ I am so sorry of this tragic loss. Trenty was a wonderful person, example to the community, the children that he coached and the children that live here at The Ridge. As friends and neighbors, we too, will miss Trenty and his smile. My heart goes out with deepest sympathy. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.Regina Conine
