

Kenneth Brown

August 13, 1965 - May 14, 2024

Kenneth E. Brown, of Hot Springs, passed away May 14, 2024 at his home. He said goodbye to his family and friends as he transitioned to his heavenly home. Kenny lived his life faithfully for God and was welcomed into eternal life by friends and family that had gone on before him.

Kenny was predeceased by his parents, Edward and Dorothy (Delcore) Brown Surviving to cherish his memory are his daughters, Tabatha Brown and Samantha Anguiano and her husband, Mariano.

Kenny loved his grandchildren, Remington Wallace, Nyiko Anguiano and Eliana Anguiano. They will continue to carry his legacy with them as they keep his memory alive.

He leaves behind his sister, Teresa Griffin and her husband, David.

Vicki Benson was Kenny's soul mate. Together they shared 15 years of love and devotion. Vicki will forever miss him and hold his memory dear.

Kenny was a proud father and grandfather who loved his family and supported them with lots of kindness and genuine care. He also had a special kind of love for his fur buddy, Romeo.

Everyone who knew Kenny enjoyed being around him because of his outgoing personality and generous spirit. He loved to enjoy a good game of pool while drinking his favorite refreshing beverage. Kenny loved spending time at area lakes, swimming or just relaxing with family or friends.

Throughout his life, Kenny kept his focus on maintaining a strong spiritual connection to God. He loved to take time to read the scriptures which sustained him even till the end of his life.

A celebration of remembrance will be held at a later date.
