“ My condolences to James, Margeret and Jennifer. This is a sad day. Uncle Kenneth, as I remember, always had a smile on his face, a joke to tell, a car to buy and a gun to sell. He was a man of simple principles who didn't complicate life with most of the stresses that most people do. He loved what he loved and made sure to catch as many fish as he could before leaving us. Momma is up there greeting her big brother now. I only hope that daddy isn't still angry at him for eating all the Vienna sausages! 😊
