

Kenneth Simmons

April 21, 2010

Kenneth Simmons, 76, of Hot Springs died on Wednesday, April 21, 2010 in Hot Springs. He was born in Yell County, Arkansas on June 23, 1933 to the late Henry G. and Malinda L. Simmons.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Army Military Police Corps, served as Lieutenant on the Hot Springs Police Department retiring there in 1974, and was a member of the Hot Springs Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #1.

He was formerly co-owner and operator of the Hot Springs Landmark, King Kone Drive-in with his longtime business partner of over 30 years.

He was predeceased by his wife, June, his parents, three brothers and one sister.

Survivors include three sons and daughters-in-law, Mark and Debbie Simmons of Hot Springs, Matthew and Kim Simmons of Bryant, and Michael and Dawn Simmons of Hot Springs, a step-daughter, Sandra Rowland of Hot Springs, five grandchildren and three great grandchildren, two sisters, Violet Brewster and Ina Burton, both of Hot Springs.

There will be no services.

Honorary pallbearers are Joanne Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Keller, Mr. and Mrs. William Watkins, Mr. Johnnie Mann, the Kenneth Rainwater Family, past and present members of the Hot Springs Police Department, Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #1 and the staff of Fountain Lake Nursing and Rehab and Dierksen Hospice.

In lieu of flowers or cards memorials have been designated to the Hot Springs Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #1.