

Kennith Ray Nalls

June 23, 1940 - October 4, 2017

Kennith Ray Nalls, 77, of Hot Springs passed forward Wednesday October 4, 2017. He was born June 23, 1940 to the late Edith and James A. Nalls in Victoria, Texas.

Kennith was enlisted in the Army National Guard for seven years and was an active member of Lakeview Assembly of God for many years. He was predeceased by his parents; two siblings, his “big brother” James Nalls and Carolyn Branch; grandson, Colton MacKay and his mother-in-law affectionately known as “Maw”. Kenneth loved Jesus, his family, church family, camping, fishing and singing.

Survivors include his beloved wife of 56 years, Lynda Nalls; two daughters, Kim (Charles) Kellar and Kelley (Brian) MacKay; one sister, Gwen (Roland) Adcock; brother-in-law, Jon (Carol) Dean; four grandchildren, Wesley MacKay, Shelbey MacKay, Landon (Jamie) Cramer and Makenzie Cramer; nephews, Weston Dean, Brennan Dean and Dodd (Terri) Chambers.

Visitation will be 10:00 AM Saturday October 7th at Lakeview Assembly of God with a Celebration of his life to follow at 11:00 AM with Pastors Wayne Gore and Jonathan Kinder officiating. Burial will follow at Crestview Memorial Park.

Pallbearers are Jim Bates, Ted Noble, Tony Adams, Larry Hicks, Johnny Kinder and Kenny Mitchell.

Honorary pallbearers are Gary Meek, Tom Knoedl, and the late Phil Arguello and Earl Wells.

Special thanks to Dr. Timothy English, Dr. Neeraj Bharany, National Park Medical Center Medical Surg and ICU staff.

In lieu of flowers the family ask that memorials be made to Lakeview Assembly of God Missions Department.
