Thank you. Shelli you were the mom I really didn't have. I have always looked up to you and how you handled difficult situations with class and grace. When times get tough I always think how would Shelli handle this. I love you both. Thanks for everything.

“Kevin, thank you for loving our daughter Amanda and our grandson, Rylan. You brought so much love, joy, happiness, fun and laughter into their lives and ours. We are so grateful for the time we had together as a family. I will always be grateful we were able to form a closer bond recently. I wish we had the chance to continue that bonding but it wasn't in God's plan. You will be greatly missed and you will always hold a special place in our hearts and our lives. We love you. Sharron ("mom-in-law) and Jim Carloss ("dad-in-law") Peacefully rest in God's kingdom

“ I have worked with Kevin for most of my beer career. He started at Three Lakes just a few months after I was hired. We had several highs and lows thru the years. Kevin could make you laugh and pull your hair out at the same time. Kevin was the guy that always wanted to hit the big home run in the market. He loved to be the center of attention and wanted you to know he was in the room. He was always the loudest and full of life. Some would say that he was always trying to get out of work. I would say that he would work very hard and get things done early so we could kick back in the afternoon. There is one thing that I would say about Kevin Williams is that no matter what he was there. One of the good guys that always knew what it takes to get it done. He will be missed.

The girls know your in heaven now, and they know your dancing while drinking an “ice cold Miller Lite”. Sophia looked up at the sky last night and said “there’s daddy” as she pointed at a star.
