

L.C. Brown

April 17, 1926 - January 26, 2015

L.C. Brown, 88 of Hot Springs peacefully passed in his sleep, in his recliner, in his home on January 26, 2015. He was born April 17, 1926 in Arkansas County near his beloved White River. He was preceded in death by his parents, Lemuel and Estella (Frakes) Brown; by the love of his life, his wife, Anna Grace (Bowers) Brown; his brother, John Homer and sister-in-law, Charlsie Brown.

He hunted and trapped in the woods he cherished. He served in the Army during World War II and a Purple Heart Medal recipient. He was a wonderful father, mechanic extraordinaire, Hot Springs police detective, long distance truck driver and small business owner. He was a contributor to a documentary film on the people of the White River and book Daughter of the White River.

He is survived by brother, Floyd (Judy) Brown; children, Becky Dobbs-Allen (Dub), Jim Brown (Kelli), David Brown (Allison); grandchildren, Jordan Dobbs (Kristi), Anna K Mitchell, Casey Dobbs (Deidra), Devin Brown, Grace Anne Brown, and Will Brown; great grandchildren, Crystal Breshears, Gunnar Mitchell, Ethan Mitchell, Jeremy Dobbs, Tucker Mitchell, and Graceleigh Dobbs. His chosen family is Rose, Lindsey and Jessa Thurman, Mary and Dean Rogers, David Finch, Ginger McLaughlin, Tabitha Melody, Denise Parkinson and his constant companion, Buffalo Bob, the cat.

The family wishes to thank Mary Strickland and Veterans Affairs Home Base team for their outstanding services and care to our father/grandfather.

Visitation will be 1:00 PM Saturday January 31st at River of Life Church.
Memorial services will follow at 2:00 PM.

“ I met LC at the Malco Theater opening night of the festival 2006. He was such a friendly gentleman and so interesting. I remember being spellbound by his stories when his daughter Becky, whom I knew, walked by and said "Hi Dad". I told him I was a volunteer at Garvan Gardens when Becky was the volunteer coordinator. She was so fortunate to have such a wonderful father. Blessings to all the family. What a treasure.

“ Becky, Jimmy, David - This is Lynne Frazier Adcox, daughter of Frankie and Tony and sister of Bill. I am so sorry to hear about Mr. Junior's passing. Mom died Dec 2013 and I wanted to get word to ya'll, but didn't know how - I live in LA and Bill is in TN. Your Mom and Dad were precious people to Mom. She loved them both dearly. She had a picture of Ann that your Dad gave Mom long ago and she kept it on her dresser. Your parents were special people to my Mom. I hope you all are strong together during this sad time. My thoughts and prayers are with you!

“ Family, I remember the funny, wordy guy that often sat around a table exchanging 'stories' - of course his were the best! Ron and I also attended movies and dinner dates with L.C. and Ann. I will treasure my memories of L.C. and his dear family. I will pray that God will comfort you and give you peace as only He can.
