“ Larry was my 1st cousin and my friend. He was gifted with a very unique and friendly personality. He was quiet about his military service but was in the United States Army and was a veteran of the war in Vietnam. Over many years we shared many a laugh, many a joke and we shared a table for drinks more than a few times. One couldn't help but enjoy his company, I know I did. He took the good and the bad in stride with the same smile on his face. He was slow to anger and kept bad news to himself. He was one of a kind in my opinion. He was the kind I liked in a person. I'll think of LA for the rest of my days. Rest in peace friend, you were loved, you were caring, you will be missed. Till Vahalla.
