

Lisa Garner

March 14, 1966 - March 31, 2025

Lisa Garner, 59, of Hot Springs passed away on 3/31/2025. She was born in Hot Springs on March 14, 1966, to Joyce and Roscoe Wagner who both preceded her in death. She is also predeceased by her sister, Angel Wagner. Although she was maternal figure to so many of her children's friends, she is survived by her two children, Kourtney Stallings (Kyle), her son Steven Garner and her daughter Rhonda Pitts (Johnathan). She is also survived by her brother Zachery Wagner (Kraylon) as well as her two best friends Tammy Tennison and Nathan Brown. The hardest part of her leaving this world is the two grandchildren who were the center of her universe, Kylee and Kyler Moffatt who she spent her days keeping up with and entertaining. They will always know how much they meant to their Mimi.

Lisa was the type of person who put others in front of herself, always. She spent her retirement, the last several years of her life caring for her mother, Joyce and her sister, Angel during their health struggles. While she wasn't chasing her granddaughter, she enjoyed bargain shopping and sending out TikTok's. Prior to that, she enjoyed fishing and camping with her children and mother as well as being an avid basketball fan, especially the Arkansas Razorbacks. Lisa could never know the impact she made on so many people who she encountered.

“ As teenagers me and her sister angel were pretty good friends. I used to go up there at their house occasionally and stay the night when I was at my grandparents house. My mom’s parents just live right down the road from them on the same street. Their whole family men a lot to me.
