“ Hi Jim, LaVonne, Marilyn, Don, Darrell, Larry and all! Sure wish we could be there in person. Think of you cousins often! I'm sure Aunt Lorraine knew how many years ago Art Nelson met Ann Ramsden. Like to wonder how big the "circle" is now. Unbroken. We love it! Wish you all some comfort!

“ We grew up with her family...always a fun bunch...we had Memorial day picnics in the Harms Woods and once they drove home with out one of the kids (there were a lot) and so our family stayed with the crying boy for a few hours until they finally realized he must have been left at the picnic and turned around and came back for him... we never let Lorraine forget that one! She was a hoot just like my mom.

“ When I was around 4 years old...I remember looking out my Grandma's big window in the living room - she had told me that men had put an American Flag on the moon. I kept looking at the moon and then I looked at her and said I can see it Grandma. She smiled at me and just said "You can - can you?". I will never forget that...she didn't tell me I couldn't - she let a little girl run with her imagination. Rest in peace Grandma!!!

I have known Lorraine forever....well, at least for 60 years. And she knew Milt since the day he was born. Reuben & Lorraine were very special to us. Aunt Anna was like a second mother to Milt, and Lorraine was like his big sister. She took him in, gave him a place to stay when he left home and went to the Chicago area to work. He was always grateful for that. I have so many wonderful memories of being with Lorraine and her family. She was serious and spiritual minded, yet she could be so humorous! And oh, could she cook delicious meals! If Milt was still alive, I am sure we would be at her funeral. All Heaven is rejoicing, and we can all rejoice because she is there. Love to all the family.
