“ Uncle Louie was one of my all-time favorite people. Growing up in Hot Springs as a child, I had some of the best times of my life at Louie and Maxine's house making homemade ice cream and eating that mouth watering fried catfish. Uncle Louie was always the life of the party. He was probably the most down to earth person I have ever known. He always was a "tell it like it is" person who held nothing back. If the president of the United States came up to his front door, he would invite him in and start shooting the bull. You always knew how he felt about something or somebody because he never held anything back. He was a true American who will be sorely missed. We need more people like him in this country right now.

“ My dad, Jack, is there in spirit today. He had heard the news shortly after Uncle Louie's passing and, apparently, was waiting to hear from someone regarding the service. I just saw that it was earlier today and let him know... Please know he would've been there in a heartbeat and was planning to get on a plane to Hot Springs this week to attend.

“ We were saddened to hear about the passing of Uncle Louie. While I never did get a chance to meet him, I've heard many-a-great story about Louie and Hot Springs, Arkansas from my dad, Jack Albright (Louie's nephew). My dad, ten years younger, has known Uncle Louie all of his life. He's always enjoyed visiting Uncle Louie and I know he's going to miss him. A lot of great times and we know that Uncle Louie meant so much to so many... Our thoughts are with the family.

“ I have wonderful memories of Uncle Louie. He would get out the tractor and let me "drive" around in the pasture to round up the cows. I think he had as much fun as I did. I always loved going out to Uncle Louie's and Aunt Maxine's. She pierced mine and my mother's ears on my brother Randy's 16th birthday.
Much love to all the family. I love you, Uncle Louie.

“ When I was around 16 years old Brenda and I came out to Aunt Maxine and Uncle Louis to get our ears pierced, I was so scared. Aunt Maxine put clothes pins on my ears and showed me the big ole needle she would use and told me it wouldnt hurt. Well she gets started and gets one ear done and Uncle Louie jumped up and hollered OH MY GOD AT THE BLOOD MAXINE, After I turned sheet white he just cracked up laughing...
I will always cherish this memory of them... Belinda Rowell Walters

“ Years ago, I went with my friend Shiela to have lunch with her grand daddy, Mr. Albright. Mr. Albright asked my full name and I told him. He said my grandfather's name and asked if I was any kin to him. I said yes, that was my grandpa but I never met him because he died ten years before I was born. Mr. Albright then told me the story of how my Grandpa Carter had run off the road outside of Hot Springs on Christmas Eve 1959. Mr. Albright thought it was a simple accident but when he got to the car, he saw my Grandpa Carter, only 48, slumped over at the wheel. Mr. Albright was the one to check for a pulse and heartbeat..nothing. He and others who stopped that cold night were there to help. My dad never talked much about his father til later years and never told me the story of how Grandpa Carter died at the wheel. I really appreciated Mr. Albright for his kindness in being there for my grandpa in 1959 and there again for me as he told the story in 1992.
