“ My sweet "fence neighbor" Mrs. Louise. I will miss our long talks over the fence about our yards and our flowers, about our families and life. You always knew where the best bargains were in town. You were always busy and always thinking about other people. One day I heard a knock on my door. I looked out the window and all I could see was the top of her head. I opened the door and she said, "I have something for you". I went with her to her house and I will say she did. She loaded me down with groceries that she "had too much of". That's the kind of person she was. She was always thinking of others. She wasn't shy about telling you her "real" feelings and she wasn't shy about sharing her love for God. Goodbye sweet lady. I will see you again one day. Until then, I know you are singing in Heaven.

“ Dear oldest sister Lou, I am going to miss you so much. We didn't grow up in our school years because you married first. But when I married and we both had children our togetherness started. Those 6 cousins had a ball together. Our Saturday yard sales trips were fantastic! The kids probably got tired of macaroni, cheese & tuna! They could probably tell some stories! I will try to stay in close contact with your daughters, Lou. I love you and already miss you, but I will get to spend eternity with you when it is my time.

Mom

I am forever thankful for the blessings of having you close to me, my entire life. I don't know yet how I will maneuver through life without you. You were my safe place, you were my rock. I will forever miss you. I love you
